Unfortunately, just as nights are getting lighter, so is your magazine. I seem to have lots of engagements elsewhere over the next few weeks so I am relying on second hand information and secondary sources to fill the magazine. More than ever, articles from members are welcome, indeed highly valued. Newspapers have a 'silly season' I'm not sure what we will have yet. PR

Collaborative Project

After the success of last year's project we are sure we will be doing another. Suggestions and volunteers are welcome. Get in touch with Duncan Hutchinson.

Table-top Turn-out 8th May

May Pro Demo: Emma Cook RPT 'The Tiny Turner'

I was unable to attend again this week and hi-jacked this material from the web site too: - still well worth a visit.

I understand from feedback the following week that although Emma produced some very interesting and pretty ornaments, some of our members felt unchallenged and a little under-stimulated by this display. PR

If any member is in need of anything then you have the list and I can keep items by until you can collect. They will be displayed each week at the club in any case on the shop table. The supply of these tools is a service offered to members by me in order to try and keep your hobby costs a little cheaper.

David Muckle RPT.

*Please also be aware that some of the other shop prices will have to rise in the near future by an average of 3 to 4 % due to rising purchase costs. I cannot do anything about this as it is costing more to buy in certain of the polishes which we provide and the ingredients of one polish have risen 34% recently. Current stock will remain the same price until the stock level drops.
